Gregory Gunder receives Honorable Mention in the FilmGate Short Film Festival - Documentary Film Competition

Cutler Bay, FL, May 27, 2021 – Gregory Gunder, of Cold Spring Video, has received an Honorable Mention from the FilmGate Short Film Festival - Documentary. The recognition was given for Gregory’s moving documentary short, Choral Music in South Florida - Dr. Kenneth Boos, which is the first in a series of short documentaries. Choral Music in South Florida features exceptional performances by Harmonic Disruption, as well as MDC Chamber Singers and The Civic Chorale of Greater Miami. It also features Dr. Kenneth Boos, whose passion and leadership has shaped choral music for a broad spectrum of groups.

“It is an honor to be recognized by FilmGate Short Film Festival - Documentary and we are very pleased to be a part of this competition. We hope this will be the first of several short documentaries highlighting choral music in South Florida and its return from this pandemic.”

The FilmGate Short Film Festival - Documentary Competition recognizes film, videography and new media professionals who demonstrate exceptional achievement in craft and creativity, and those who produce standout entertainment or contribute to profound social change. Entries were judged by Billy Corben, co-founder Rakontur Studios; Marya Myer, Interim Director of The Women’s Fund; and Joyce Belloise, VP of Content and Community Partnerships in South Florida PBS. The panel said the following about Choral Music:

“Such an interesting personality, a great deep dive, a beautiful story that had layers that unfolded perfectly.”
